

► Sign-up Procedure

Patrons wishing to use the Internet workstations must sign up at the Circulation desk. When a workstation is available, staff will enter the time the patron takes possession of it. Internet workstation time is limited to 30 minutes unless no one else is waiting.

If a workstation is not immediately available, staff can give patrons an estimated time when it will be available. Patrons must be present when the workstation becomes available or lose his/her turn to use it.

Patrons will be told when their ½ hour Internet time has expired.

When using the Internet workstation, patrons will have a part of the mouse device checked out to them.

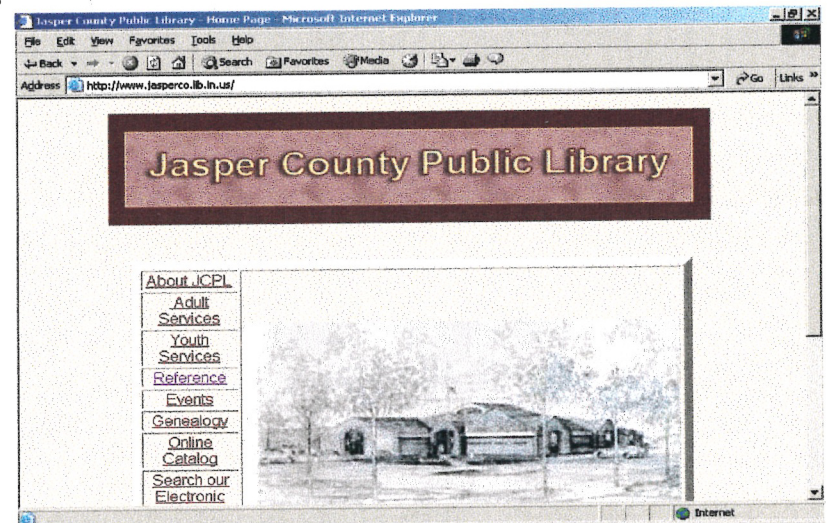

► E-Mail

The library does not offer electronic mail accounts.

Free e-mail services such as Hotmail, Yahoo mail, and similar sites may be accessed.
